Beaming brightly from the serene seaside pocket of Skennars Head, this resort-like family home presents a Hamptons-inspired design, revealing many luxurious details that are perfectly in tune with its paradise locale.

At first, it's the home's white weatherboard exterior and dramatic pitched rooflines that provide a wonderful impression. This only continues upon entry, with polished concrete floors spanning the entire ground level, where the open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area spills out to a north-facing alfresco deck that overlooks the pool.

Upstairs, the lavish main bedroom offers a large ensuite, galley-style walk-in robe, and vaulted ceilings, along with a
